CAMELOT PRIMARY SCHOOL, SOUTHWARK

Camelot Primary School, Old Kent Rd, Southwark has a high number of refugee and asylum-seeking children on their role. Twin girls aged 9, from a family of six children living in emergency accommodation and with the school now closed to them they are left with no access to the daily support provided by the school. They are also no longer able to access the breakfast and lunch provided by the school. When the school checked, other services supporting the family had also closed leaving them with no support systems.
